

Intapp partners with Bite Investments to enhance investor management

June 4, 2024

Direct access to Bite Stream's consolidated fundraising and investor data creates an integrated investor portal in Intapp DealCloud

PALO ALTO, Calif., June 04, 2024 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Intapp (NASDAQ: INTA), a leading global provider of AI-powered solutions for professionals at advisory, capital markets, and legal firms, today announced a new partnership with Bite Investments, a SaaS provider for the private markets and alternative investments industry.

Through this partnership, Intapp DealCloud clients using Bite Investments' fundraising and investor management software, Bite Stream, can now directly access an investor portal within DealCloud. Bite Stream's integration with DealCloud addresses core needs for alternative asset managers, including:

- Full investor lifecycle management in one platform, with a unified view of investor information, fund performance, and deal pipelines
- Seamless data transfers between the Bite Stream Investor Portal and DealCloud, including automated investor profile creation
- Advanced analytics and enhanced visualization of investor activity

"Asset managers are often at a disadvantage when it comes to the ability to access critical information," said Erin Guinan, General Manager of DealCloud at Intapp. "The partnership between Intapp and Bite Investments unifies data directly in the system investors are using daily, maximizing efficiency, improving data integrity, and improving the user experience."

"With macroeconomic challenges steady and private equity dealmaking picking up, asset managers are still facing headwinds of scale and complexity. This is what we solve for with Bite Stream," said William Rudebeck, CEO of Bite Investments. "We are excited to work with Intapp to help their clients with a truly end-to-end solution, allowing them to move deals faster, minimize data transfer risks, and get superior investor insight."
